My dear Mr Yeomans

I sent you a few lines on the 5th June, and again on the 5th of this month, enclosing the pension Certificate; to neither of which I have received any answer. If this reaches you, have the kindness to send me a line, that I may know whether sickness has happened to you, or any of the family.

I am more anxious about you, as you are always so punctual.

With best wishes to all, believe me to remain

Yours very sincerely
Fanny Keats McInnes

My dear Mr Lorimer

I am happy to say that I have just received your letter, which has relieved me greatly, as I thought nothing could have prevented you from answering my letters but ill health, you are always so kind and attentive to me

The object of my letter of the 5th June was to request you to have the kindness to subscribe for the year 1883 to "The Queen, The Lady's Newspaper, and Court Chronicle" in the name of "Madame D'Estrada 21 Rue St Ghislain, Brussels."

I leave the goodness to deduct the amount, and send me a receipt for Madame Estrada.

As probably you have no
